

Dear friends,

It brings me bittersweet feelings to announce my resignation from Waterband. I can honestly say that this has been a very positive experience for me. I'm very grateful to have had the pleasure of performing for and/or with all of you. The friendships I've found and the experiences I've had are priceless. I've learned so much about music and about life. I'm glad that my role in the band has ended on such peaceful terms, there are no hard feelings. To clarify, the only reason I am leaving the band is because my heart has been telling me to do so. This has made for a very challenging situation on my end. I love the band, but my heart's just not in it. Why? I don't know, but I do know that it wouldn't be fair to anyone if I had stayed in the band feeling the way I did. I also know that when one door closes another one opens. I'm very pleased that Waterband has found Dom Williams to fill my position! Please embrace Dom as you did me. Once again, it has been an awesome experience and for that I am truly grateful.

Please keep in touch, its been wonderful meeting all of you!
