

”Disjointed”

Disjointed since I don't know when Now here we find ourselves going down this road again
L-o-o-o-ong time since I've seen you my friend
I don't ever wanna be dis-jointed again

Maybe someday we will part ways
When we're old and grey
Hope you don't mind if I say
I'd rather you stay!
It's better than being...
