

"For You"

I like the way the sun feels in my eyes. Yes I do.
Because it reminds me of looking at you.
I'm blinded by the light that you emanate, you radiate.
You keep me warm when I'm within your view.

And it should come as no surprise that I like to get high just so I can be up there with you dancing in your heavenly light, it feels so right days like today prove that it couldn't be wrong

ooh ooh ooh couldn't be wrong no no no no no ooh ooh ooh that's why I'm singing this song...
I need you to know

I'm so grateful for you; I'm so thankful for the things you do Don't know what I would do without you My heart sings this harmony for you

Ooh I'm feeling high on life I'm on top of the world the sky is blue and the birds are singing but when i'm feeling down sometimes I just change my mind because life is too short but there's still plenty of time to do all the things I always wanted to do make all my dreams come true and each and every one of them include you yeah I've got to have you by my side you're my best friend you take me higher than I've ever been

I'll say it again
