

Shine

By David McDougald

Why do you got your shoes on backwards?
Why do you keep walking the wrong way?
Why do you exist? To be unhappy, No, no, no
Why don't you lose your fear today

Stare into the sun, It lies within your soul
Behold your brightest light
And let it shine for the world
Shine for the world

Why do you spend your time analyzing?
Why do you wish things weren't this way?
Why do you limit with inhibitions?
Why don't you free yourself today?
