Your eyes, they see me
The only ones to ever see me clearly
Your words they soothe me
The confidence you give it really moves me

How wonderful you are

My Love I give you
I hope I give enough so that it fills you
Your hope your dreams
I want to give it all to you completely

How wonderful to be
The love of you and me

Breathless I'm taken
The passion that we share is not mistaken
Headlight I'm dizzy
The feelings that we share intoxicating

How drunken we will be
On the love of you and me
