Band Bio:

Waterband was founded by "Dreadlock Dave" McDougald & John Welton just after the time when Vegetables Mattered! Both inspired by a higher calling and deep desire to send sincere positive vibrations into the universe through expressive musical improvisation and thoughtful musical and lyrical composition. Enter into the Flow Rick Phillips and then Ryan Bair and you have what today is known as Waterband. Waterband's form is ever changing, yet ever flowing... Waterband's sonic depth and changing forms allow them to perform as a dynamic acoustic ensemble or as a full-blown electric face melting aural assault! Waterband has performed over 1100 shows, since forming in 2001, and has released five CD's to critical acclaim. On Tour Now... Bring Your Light, Boogie Shoes & A Smile To Share...

Oakhurst is a Denver-based international act with deep Appalachian roots and original songs that fuse traditional bluegrass with indie-rock and a citybilly attitude. The band's sound is more rustic and rocking, and less jazzy and jammed, than the typical hybrid bluegrass found in the Rocky Mountain region. Oakhurst played nearly 200 shows in 20 states and 5 European countries during 2006. In 2007, the band played 12 states, 7 European countries, and The Caribbean. [1] Even though their tour schedule is incessant, the band never stops playing. On off days, the boys of Oakhurst take to the streets, deploying their Rocky Mountain Guerrilla Grass style, making some new friends and promoting. Along the way the band has entertained crowds as large as 5,500 and played on the Xingolati Groove Cruise. [2] Over the course 2005 and 2006 Oakhurst has shared stages with the very diverse national talent such as Nickel Creek, Yard Dogs Roadshow, Bela Fleck, The Ditty Bops, John Prine, Waterband, The Musemeant, Junior Brown, The Hackensaw Boys, Ekoostik Hookah and Arlo Guthrie. Oakhurst has shared the stage with Colorado legends and emerging talent as well. The list includes Yonder Mountain String Band, Devotchka, Rose Hill Drive, The Motet, Pete Wernick and Vince Herman.

Have A Groovy Day! Peace & Blessings
