Waterband News

- Waterband is participating in the Ohio Stormwater Conference being held at the Kalahari Water Park in Sandusky, Ohio. Although this is a private booking, Waterband is performing to help bring attention to the issues surrounding clean water. Waterband's Wishing Well will be there as well with a table at the conference to help bring more attention to the band's philanthropy.
- Fans of Waterband can see the band in June at the Southwind Music Festival in Bellefontaine, Ohio at the Zane Shawnee Caverns.
